

The shared effect direction is not concentrated in one family

Odds ratio after omitting one plant family

Each grey point is one unclustered leave-one-family-out retest. All 125 retests remain below OR = 1; family deletion tests concentration, not phylogenetic independence.