

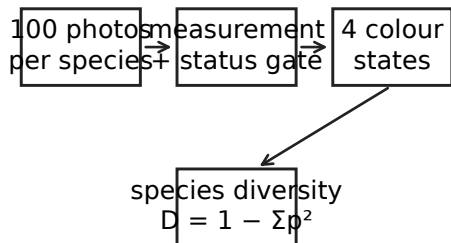

Figure 1 | Flower-colour polymorphism as a species-level property

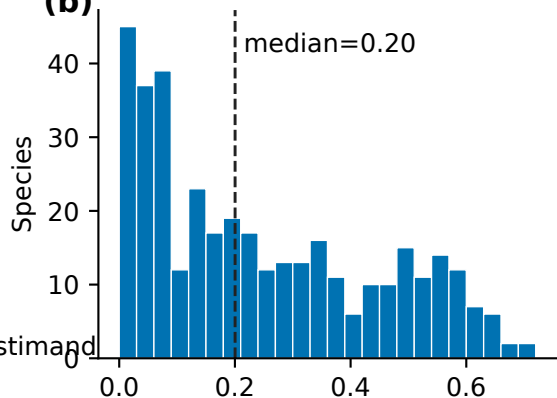

(a)

Amount of polymorphism is the focal species-level estimate

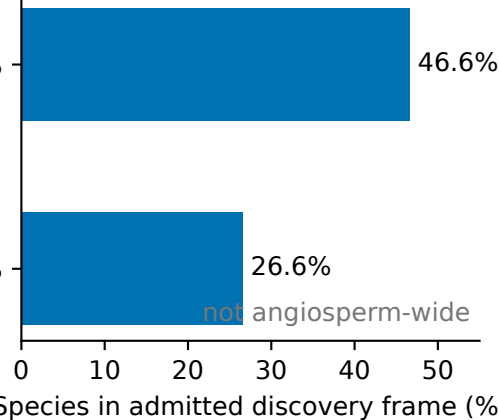

(b)

Polymorphism varies continuously

Non-trivial secondary morphs are common in-frame

(d)

Threshold summaries preserve a continuous gradient

Second-largest morph fraction

